

ISKF - International Shotokan Karate Federation
Mission – Vision – Values

Mission:

To preserve and spread traditional Japanese karate through exceptional instruction.

Vision:

To promote peace and goodwill through the development of positive character and physical fitness.

Values:

- Respect and Dignity
ISKF is an inclusive organization that values diversity, recognizes the human dignity of all individuals, and treats them with fairness and respect at all times. We consider each individual worthy regardless of race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, marital status, disability or age.
- Integrity
We are committed to maintaining the highest ethical standards, honoring our commitments and fostering an environment of mutual respect and trust.
- Innovation
We strive to maintain the foundation of our founding masters while being able to adapt and improve our technical instruction and organization.
- Excellence
We work continually to attain the highest level of performance for each individual, dojo and our organization as a whole.
- Collaboration
We value working in collaboration with all martial artists and are committed to shared learning.

Edited version: 12/12/17